

POLICIES AND FEES

2007-2008

Full semester payments for all classes you signed up for are due by within 1 week from semester start date. Late charge of 5% will be automatically applied for all late payments.

If student is joining mid-semester, the fee will be prorated in accordance with the number of classes remaining during current semester.

If only 2 students registered for the class, it is considered a semi-private lesson. If you would like to sign up, the class fees are charged based on private class fee schedule and are divided in half and invoiced to attending students.

We are offering free trial lessons for group lessons only, there is no obligation to continue. Tuition for trial class and the rest of the lessons in the semester is due only if student decides to take this class. Full payment is due before second lesson.
